Proceeds will go to equip the Center's kitchen. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Alumnae to Plan Easter Egg Hunt

Alpha Delta Pi South Bay Alumnae Assn. will have a workshop meeting Wednesday evening, Feb. 25, at the home of Mrs. John Johnson, 210 Calle Miramar, Redondo Beach, at 8 p.m., to make final preparations for the group's annual Easter egg hunt party to be held in March.

Mrs. George Ott, chairman for the Easter event, has planned that the members will work together assembling decorations, completing baskets, and making final arrangements for activities which will be provided for the pre-school age children who attend the party.

President of the ADPI Alumnae group, Mrs. Charles Dutton, announced that following the workshop portion of the evening, for fun as well as to add to the club's ways and means fund, a grab bag game will be played. Each member will bring a small wrapped "white elephant" gift to the meeting to fill the grab bag. Mrs. Dutton also reminds that orders from the cosmetic party will be delivered at this meeting.

The association's treasurer, Mrs. Alan Ducommun, reported that the philanthropic project of the January meeting resulted in a donation of $6.00 by the group to the National Alpha Delta Pi Abigail Davis Fund, a student loan program.

Refreshments for the February meeting will be provided by co-hostesses Mrs. Lloyd Ferguson, El Segundo, and Mrs. Ross McAdam, following the workshop program and grab bag festivities.

The next meeting will be Feb. 19 when the Past Matrons and Past Patrons will be serving as officers with Phyllis Peverley and Earl Wells presiding in the East. Chairmen for the evening will be the 1959 hostesses.

Dr. Neumann's professional activities include frequent travel in Europe where he has acted as visiting professor in many of the leading universities.

Local RN Camp Meets

The new Oracle, Mrs. Mary Chiara, presided at the business meeting of the Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors, held at the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia, on Tuesday of this week.

The Royal Neighbors will have as a campaign theme for the year of 1959, "The Parade of Banners." Each camp will be divided into two aides and a captain will be appointed for each side. On the Torrance camp, Mrs. Susie Walker will be the captain of the Bears and on the Poppy side, Mrs. Angeline Disario will have charge.

The first campaign meeting for 1959 will be on Feb. 20 at Redondo Beach. Each camp in the district is supposed to be present and bring the banner and have a short song or skit to present when their names are called for "The Parade of Banners."

Mrs. Chiara appointed the following as chairmen for the coming year: Mrs. Lucille Myers, cards; Mrs. Angeline Disario, flowers; and Mrs. Sophia Duncan, gifts. She also appointed Mrs. Marie Koshak and Mrs. Belva Brase as protem officers to serve for 1959.
